

Kids and the Ties That Bind Outline

Ginny Ackerson; groovifamily@msn.com ; 801-489-4994

- 1) Journaling
  - a) Journaling prompts for past experiences
  - b) Journaling suggestions for current experiences
  - c) Supplies for journaling
- 2) Heritage coloring books
  - a) Online sources for coloring images
  - b) Learning to edit experiences and get the major points
  - c) Illustrating the major points
- 3) Family story books
  - a) Decide on a simple format i.e. persons, places, time periods, homes, etc.
  - b) Have everyone contribute their memories and stories
  - c) Find and include pictures of the people and places
  - d) Ways to publish
- 4) Making and playing old fashioned games and toys
  - a) Sources for historical games and toys
  - b) Supplies for same
  - c) Directions for same
- 5) Storytelling
  - a) Sources for learning to tell stories
  - b) Campfire and spooky stories
  - c) Reenactment of family, scriptural or historical stories
  - d) Using technology to cover the miles.
- 6) Puzzles and games
  - a) Sources for making all kinds of puzzles and games
  - b) Making jigsaw puzzles of family pictures
  - c) Games and how to adapt them for your families
- 7) Letter writing
  - a) Letter writing is becoming a lost art and must be resurrected
  - b) Having children write to grandparents low tech or high tech
  - c) Reading old letters and journals of relatives